“ Blake was a great and wonderful nephew to me and Norman. Always loved kidding and joking with him. He had the kindest heart and loved everyone. He enjoyed hanging the guys and fishing together. So glad we got to enjoy our shrimp together last weekend . We are going to miss him so much and so will Emmitt especially the newly rubs Blake always gave him. It's not goodbye it's see ya later. Blake I know you and Tyler will get to celebrate your birthdays together this year so hug Tyler and enjoy the big day next month. Watch over Caitlin's babies and teach them three about fishing and just hanging together and all about us down here in earth. We will see you in heaven some day and what a grand reunion that will be. Love you Aunt Sandy and Uncle Norman ❤️💙

“ Where do I even begin to say something about one of the best people I've ever known? How do you convey how special Blake was? His wonderful smile that lit up whatever room he was in. His hug that you felt through your entire being. His impish sense of humor. His ability to make you feel totally loved. He enjoyed fishing, video games, paint ball, trucks, animals and so much more. I'll never forget how it felt to hear his joyous, "hey, Aunt Risa!" whenever we spoke. From the moment he came into this world, I was besotted with him. I wanted to keep him as my own. Blake was one of the rare examples of a person who was just as special and beautiful on the inside as he was handsome on the outside. He was the epitome of goodness. He never met a stranger. He'd have done anything in his power to help anyone in need. He was a hard worker. He was a true friend. He loved God and his family with all of his might. Blake was so much that my words can't express. He was the best of all of us and we were blessed to have him be a part of our lives. I was blessed to have his as a nephew and a friend. I look forward to the time that he welcomes me into heaven and I see him again. Until that time, I know he's there talking someone's ear off about fishing and being a friend to everyone.

“ My son, I miss you so much! You were the sweetest baby, with endless smiles! From my baby to toddler, to school years and adult. You were my joy , my sunshine, my everything . You are forever loved. Forever missed. You never met a stranger, always giving , always sweet. You were a friend to many. You were Mommy' baby-little man, Poppy's fishing buddy, and Nana's little sweerheart. Wait for me at heaven's gate , after your fishing day is done. Your Mommy, will run to you again! I long for that day to hear you say again: Mom how was your day? Mom I love you, and that sweet smile. We love and miss you , my son! Love , Mom, Dad, Nana and Poppy

“ I went to school with Blake. He was a couple grades above me. We would run into each other in life out and about. Blake would always have a grin on his face and was always ready for a chat. He was one of the most genuinely nicest guys I had ever met. I’m saddened that there will be no more casual run in anymore. The world needs more Blake’s. Have you ever met someone and said “That guy will be allowed in the express lane to Heaven on his judgement day”? In my opinion, Blake is the example of that guy ! May his family find comfort in this loss.

“ Blake was an amazing man. We got rilly close during the last days at Perdue since we both worked together a lot during that time. Even after Perdue shut gown Blake texted me everyday asking how me and my family was. I will never forget how God touched my life with this man. I’m glad to know he is rejoicing with the father in Heaven.

“ I was truly heartbroken to hear about Blake’s passing. I had the chance to work with him, and through that time I came to see just how kind-hearted and genuine he was. Blake had a way of making people feel at ease — always friendly, always sincere, and just a truly good person through and through. It was clear he cared deeply about others and never hesitated to show it. My thoughts and prayers are with Mike, Lisa, Chrissy, and the entire family during this difficult time. May you find comfort in knowing how many lives Blake touched, and in knowing that God is watching over him now.

Lisa, Mike and all of your family, I am so sorry to hear about your son Blake. I remember you talking about Blake all the time, whenever, we worked together at TRW. I know you and all your family loved him so much. Please find comfort and peace in God, knowing, that this is not the end of life, just the beginning for him (with Jesus). Elaine Norrod Helm
