

Bobbie Sue Bowman

December 10, 1944 - October 4, 2023

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Bobbie Sue Bowman, 78, on October 4th, 2023, in Monterey, Tennessee. A beacon of love and warmth, Bobbie Sue was known for her unwavering devotion to her family. Her life journey began December 10th, 1944, when Bobbie Sue was born to the late John D. and Hennie Stevens of Monterey, TN. Her siblings include: Annis (Philip) Talley and Marshall (Mae) Stevens. She was preceded in death by: Johnny Stevens, James Stevens, Mott (Linda) Stevens, JD (Marla) Stephens, Mary Jane (Frank) Clark; a special cousin, Paul (Brenda) Stevens; and a sister-in-law, Carrie (Cluster) Hite. Bobbie was the devoted wife to the late James Harold (Jim) Bowman for 28 years. Bobbie and Jim were childhood sweethearts who lost touch when he joined the army, but eventually found their way back to one another and formed a loving family. Bobbie was a cherished mother to Bayron (Kris) Botkin, Regena Murphy, Mark Bowman, Johnny (Penny) Bowman, Joey (Angie) Bowman, and Candy (Aaron) Degnan. As a grandmother, she was a source of endless joy to numerous grandchildren, each of whom she treasured deeply: Brad, Wesley (Hollie), Gerald, Craig, Taylor (David), Logan, Jada, Austin, Brittney, Michael, Michaela, Jamison, Justin (Rachel), Christopher (Brinton) Cameron (Ansley), Jeremy, Devon, Dalton, and Dawson. Her great grandchildren include: Ella, Elie, Elaina, Kaiden, Dewayne, Maverick, Rohan, Finley, Bryleigh, Bryson, and Bryonna. Her love of family extends to her nieces, nephews, and cousins with special mention of Lacy (Brent) Jackson with Aiden, Ronnie and Angie Clark, and Thomas (Jennifer) Stevens with Dalton who shared their love, support, and homes with her. She is eternally grateful for her family's love. Bobbie created purpose and meaning in life by supporting her children and displaying unconditional love and devotion to her most prized possessions, her grandchildren. It would be difficult to find a better example of a woman who displayed true Christ-like love. The impact she made on the lives of those around her is undeniable. Bobbie Sue's legacy is one of love, kindness, and the simple, profound connections she fostered with her loved ones. She was fortunate to realize that the only thing in life that matters is family, and she spent every single day making sure her family felt her love. She spent her last few days here surrounded by family, with her only possessions being pictures of her loved ones. For all those fortunate enough to know and love Bobbie Sue, rest assured, she loved you better.
