“ *She was truly a wonderful person.
She was always uplifting to me.
That little store was classic America.
I know she was a Godly Woman and is a Angel in Heaven.*

“ *Brent, Marybeth, and Children, and all Ma Bonnie's family. I knew when I met her I was meeting a very special lady. All she had to know what that I was a friend of Brent and Marybeth and she took me in like she had always known me. I did so look forward to talking to her at the store about everything and nothing at all, just to spend time with her.
I know nothing will ever fill the gap she left, but her you did not lose her. You know exactly where she is, waiting for you to join her with her Heavenly Father.*

“ What a precious lady Ms Bonnie was!! She was my neighbor growing up and Dad and Tom were best of friends. I caught the bus at the store for years. The store was the hangout place and Bonnie always made you feel welcome. I've been in church with Bonnie and I know she's shouting on the hills of Glory ! Proud to call her friend and a sister in Christ. Prayers for the family and friends but I know Ms Bonnie is with our Lord and Savior and Tom welcomed her with open arms. Love you all, Sandy and Norman Sampley

Prayers for all the family, she was a pillar in community, the Church ,and a help to so many ...no words can be enough , a Godly woman to say the least who loved her Lord, family and the Church 🕊️

Brother Ronnie Wilson - September 12, 2023 at 05:52 AM

“ A wonderful neighbor a Christian woman that saw only good in everyone. Always had a testimony. I missed not stopping by the store and sitting and talking with her she sure is singing and shouting with her Jesus now. Prayers for her family.
