“ We met ‘MissRandi’ when she was my kids bus driver. All the kids absolutely loved and respected her. My family has kept connection with her and we have known of heartache and struggles. Her life became renewed when she met Brian. He brought a balance to her life and we felt their tight bond and genuine love and respect for each other. MissRandi had found someone who treated her with love and respect and brought that bright smile back into her life. Her eyes sparkled when she spoke of him. I pray for MissRandi, her children, grandchildren, future grandchildren and complete family. Keep his spirit alive and don’t lose that sense of love he brought to all of you. Don’t lose your smile and sparkle that he nurtured back to life. His tears would fill heaven if he saw you lose what he valued in you...your spirit. Our love and prayers

“ U couldn't help but to like Brian when u met him... he had a sincerity to him..a realness... a drive for what he was passionate about... specially in today's world that's something to admire.... the man was a worker... he got out there and got it.... he loved his wife , children , and grandchildren with all he had. He talked / bragged about them all often to me... he loved what his wife and him had done and built together... he was one proud man. And was quick to tell anyone how blessed he was but on flip side of that his family said the same and more about him. He was just as much a blessing to them as they was to him... gone to soon but never forgotten Brian!! Brian I just spoke to you last week and the week before.... each time your wife was mentioned and your dog... lol... I swapped a couple stories with ya and u went on your way... I'm sorry I didn't stand and talk longer... but fly high brother and watch over your pack... u was one hell of a man, husband, father, pop pop, and friend. You will never be forgotten and through your loved ones your memory will live on. We love u brother .... and on a personal note from me..... thank u for loving her how she deserved thank u for giving her that smile and glow she only had with you. R.i.p Brian you are loved and missed beyond measure. ❤️

“ Oh man my heart hurts to hear this. Brain was something else we all kinda grew up together in the blocks of Lafollette He lived across from my great grandmother Mable. He was kinda mean growing up lol but as time kept passing i grew to have much love for him he was like family From trampoline time to many video games at uncle Tommy's and bottle racket wars at night in the streets to walking to the store to get a pop out the pop machine. We all grow up and branch out and do are own things i see him one time years ago sweet talk it was we didn't keep in contact Man I'm thankful to God Almighty Lord Jesus Christ for those memories with him with everyone from my childhood on the blocks of lafollette we all lived within distances of one another. I pray you knew Jesus Christ as your Lord and savior and knew that Jesus loved you Rest easy.
