“ I meet Bruce after he married Justine Miller, Justine was my first cousin. Bruce used to stay with us in Dayton, Ohio. My father Denzle Norrod got Bruce a job. Later Justine came up and stayed a couple weeks and Bruce and Justine took me to the drive-in theater in a brand new 1953 Chevy convertible that Bruce had bought. Every time I would go to Vines ridge road and down 164 I would stop and see Justine and Bruce. They where always two of my favorite people and I stayed in contact with Bruce and Justine over the phone since the coronavirus. I would tease Bruce and tell him I was going to drive from Dayton one night and steal his dog. Bruce would always laugh. I said well you won't sell it to me. I will miss Bruce deeply and my heart goes out to Justine and their family. May God meet Bruce at heaven's doors and we all hope to join him there one great day.
