“ I worked with Gabe at the Putnam County Sheriff's Office. He was a kind-hearted man with a pleasant personality. He was always willing to help anyone and I never saw him without a smile on his face. He probably touched more lives than he ever imagined. I am praying for his family during this very difficult time. This verse reminds me of my interactions with Gabe: "Those who walk uprightly enter into peace." Isaiah 57:1-2. Gabe is at peace. He will be missed.

“ I've always been proud of Gabriel and was impressed he chose police work as a profession. I found him to be respectful young man and strongly devoted to helping others. The world has lost a wonderful defender of justice but the Lord's Heavenly Thin Blue Line has gained a strong centurion. Rest in Pease, Brother.
