“ Such a great man! I am not sure I really have the words to describe what Harold meant to me. He was gentle, kind, loving, and forgiving. He had a way of making you feel like the most important person in his world every time he talked to you. This world and his family will miss Harold Miller but his legacy will live on through his children and grandchildren for years to come.

Greg Taylor - October 10, 2022 at 11:22 AM

“ So very sorry to hear of Harold's passing. I know he was a great man of God, would do anything for anyone. He especially was a good friend to my husband for many years. I pray for comfort and strength for the family during this difficult time. Laura Padgett.
