“ My other first cousins shouldn't feel hurt when I say Harry was my favorite. Harry was about my age, and I saw him often since we visited Joe and Ona and the family almost every Sunday. Harry was a gentle man. Patient. Positive. He was a Christian man, which is a comfort to me as I know it is to his entire family. The loss of Harry will probably hit us hardest when we're all together at the family reunion in June. Harry never missed the reunion. We would sometimes get word that Harry had been in the hospital and might not make the reunion that year, but he always showed up. Family was important to Harry, as it should be to all of us. Rest in peace, Harry. You've earned it.

I stayed with Ona a lot when we moved to Cookeville from Davidson I knew Harry as a Christian man ALWAYS I haven't seen him in a long time but that doesn't mean I don't think about family I'm so sorry for your loss I wish I could come to the service and I will try my hardest. Harry and my brother Clifton were about the same age they talked and if I'm not mistaken ran around together all of us in Davidson did. So he will see Clifton and all my brothers in heaven Harry was a good person then and now. Sandy I'm so sorry for your loss and all the family Cindy Huff I love you cousin praying for you also. Don Davis all the family is in my prayers. Love y'all so much.

“ Harry was going to ride down to Davidson/Wilder with me to show me where he grew up and tell me stories about his family. I waited too long and I'll always regret it. He was my memory connection to his mom and my great aunt Onie. I know she was waiting to greet him in heaven. God bless the whole Davis family.

“ There is nothing that will ever take the Fond & Precious Memories and Love I have of my brother Harry... There are too many of them. In time they will only grow. He carried a heavy load the last few years with his illnesses and hospital stays. I know he's no longer hurting but with his passing it has left a huge hole in my heart. Time will help but it will never be the same without him. Love and prayers for Harrys family.

“ Harry was such a kind, gentle soul!!
He could “fix” anything with duct tape and a pair of panty hose and did so when a belt broke on his engine on the way to Ohio one time!!!!

He never meet a stranger and always left them with a smile! My dear ,sweet brother you will ALWAYS be missed and LOVED!!
