“ Katherine was our "second mother". She always visited with my mom and us kids when we were very young and lived in the Detroit area. My cousin Will and I are the same age. I even remember a short "court" we had when one of us did something bad. Katherine said that for the sentence, we'd have to sing Bah Bah Black Sheep. She and Will helped make our family complete back in those days. I looked forward to hot cups of tea and watching monster movies with Will while Katherine and Mom talked about grown up things. I loved Katherine's sense of humor. When I was a young adult, she and her sister Anna came to my grandmother's house when I visited in Tennessee; they were dressed in their night gowns so we could have a pajama party. Katherine was a deeply caring person who had a heart for God and a true sense of family. I am so thankful to have had her in my life, to help give love and guidance. I will truly miss her, but I'm looking forward when we will be reunited in God's kingdom. Hugs and love to all my family.

In the early 1970's Katherine was our landlady in a Detroit Duplex. I was 12 years old. She was the kindest, smartest and even at that age I was impressed at her decorating skills, I remember she liked to collect antiques. Her son Will was 2 years younger, but we would hang out, play with Hot wheels, make paper planes. And play in the basement that my Dad helped remodel. He was the younger brother I would never have. We moved away shortly after my sister was born. I send my deepest sympathy to Will and the family of Katherine, her smile and charm are ever present in these pictures. God Bless and rest in peace. Thank you for your kindness during my childhood and for your kindness to our family, of which I imagine I will never know the extent.
