“ Popcorn u were a firecracker when u wanted to be. You always had that jolly personality that could win over anybody whether young or old. I always knew if ever i needed help of any kind and it was within your grasp i had all the help i needed. I appreciated u more than i ever cared to take time and tell u. Im sorry for that. Its hard to believe u are gone. You will be greatly missed for i know many many people thought highly of u. There werent too many ppl in town that didnt know u i dont think. You were one of those that never knew a stranger. Im glad to say i had the honor to know u. You were a really good guy. May u rest in peace my friend until we meet again.

“ "Popcorn", Buddy we will miss you and your "Jolly" personality!! We will always remember you helping us out when we moved to Monterey! Getting some of your friends together, getting a U Haul and helping us move into our new home!! Will never forget my wife pulling into Earl's Service Center to get an oil change and there was three of you "Good Old Boys" sitting on a bench in front of Earl's and you told her, she couldn't get an oil change right now!! She asked why? You said cause Earl ain't here. She said there's three of you sitting here, none of you can change oil?? No you have to wait for Earl!!! Where's Earl?? Driving the School bus. Response: "What's a girl gotta do to get an oil change in this town???" Fun Fun Fun!!!

Our Sincere Condolences to the Family. Keeping you in our thoughts and prayers!

RIP "Popcorn" We love you and we will miss you!!!

“ I will surely miss seeing him Julie at their place of residence. Popcorn made a point to always honk when passing by our house, at least once a day, lol.... I'll miss that familiar honk. Also my husband and him hollering back and forth like two high school boys, because Popcorn, while at work had to always yell "Yankee" if he saw us at the red light. One good guy who surely will be missed by many.....
