“ My family would like to thank everyone for their kind words, well-wishes, support, and prayer over the last few days. So many have reached out it's very difficult to thank each individual but you know who you are and we are grateful. There will be a memorial service planned for Pa sometime in the next few weeks. As soon as a date is set we will place notices online and then the local newspapers

“ When I was around 6 mom had planned a trip to take us all to the Knoxville Zoo. The night b4 I was playing running across the porch and seeing how far I could jump into the yard. They told me to stop which of course I ignored lol and wound up jumping onto one of those big roofing nails that went straight into my foot. I was screaming my head off like a kid does Pa ran out there picked me up carried me to the house put me in his lap and very calmly pulled it out. Willodean and mom took turns carrying me around the zoo the next day. He was a good Pa.
