“ About 3 years ago I posted a prayer on Facebook for a little girl who had cancer. She was having to go to Nashville for treatments. The parents where driving down at least 3 days a week. Gill reached out to me. He wanted to help the family. He put a check in our mailbox. He gave $1,000.00 dollars to this family. That was an awesome thing to do. He might have had issues but he had a huge heart! Prayers for comfort to his family. Lorna and Robert Matheney

“ I remember visiting Larry, Barbara and family in Greenville, SC for the 4th of July in 1975. Gill had a club house in the closet under the stairwell and and was very enthusiastic about me being in the Marine Corps. He also had a humorous rendition of Three Dog Night's song Joy To The World which I remember to this day.

“ Gil may you rest in peace my friend. So many memories of our friends in Monterey just hanging out riding the streets of Monterey and back roads listening to music and enjoying being teenagers. Gil and I had a conversation about a year ago about the all the fun crazy things we all did together. There are too many to pick just one We remained friends all these year. Gil spread your wings and fly with the angels. Your Friend Always Margaret Geer

“ My heart is broken by this sad loss. Gill was my cousin, and I will always remember the fun we had at our grandparent’s home in Monterey and his parent’s home in Kingston when we were children. He ran faster than anyone I had ever seen. He liked to sing songs to me. He was extremely funny and entertaining whenever we got together. In recent years we reconnected, but time was much too short. I love you, cousin. I know angels carried you home.

“ Gill, May you find eternal peace and happiness. One of my cherished memories is watching you and Johnny wiring our house, a task executed with great skill. I met the inspector on the inspection day, learned what a ground wire is, and was instructed to place it in the ground—a true learning experience. I still remember exactly where I placed it. I learned a lot shadowing you both. Your legacy will be reflected in a great light with fondness and admiration.

May God comfort your family and friends, knowing you are at rest and in peace now.

Rest in Peace,
