“ I remember my Mom and Dad, Milo and Irene sitting on her front porch and Alma was so tickled that she nearly fell out of her chair and Cecil told her she better watch that a neighbor might pass and think she’s drunk and that would embarrass him to have to explain. She was a dear sweet person and never met a stranger and could cook food that would melt in your mouth. Many good times shared on the front porch. My deepest sympathies to the rest of her family. She will be missed but always loved.

“ Alma Garrett was an absolute blessing to know and my memories of her are a treasure to hold close to my heart. I loved her almost as much as her children, who are dear friends! More than once she made me laugh out loud at Goff Funeral Home, until I embarrassed myself. She was hilarious and I loved her! Alma had a heart of gold and you knew where she stood and how she loved the Lord. No doubt, today, she is in the arms of Jesus. Thanks be to God for Mamas like Alma Garrett who served the Lord with gladness. My thoughts and prayers are with her precious family. ”
