“ Your smile and kindness will be missed by all who know you, especially me. The time, effort and love you provided Edna in her time of need made you a role model to me. I learned more about giving and love watching you. We had some great conversations and many laughs. Today, I recall some hilarious stories. I remember your kitchen was always warm and smelled of delicious food. Maybe a little wine too :-) I didn't appreciate wine then, but I've made up for it in recent years. I imagine you and Ed are cooking up something great together now and Edna is waiting for her dinner. Keep smiling and laughing, rest in peace, and remember us as we'll remember you and keep a special spot in our hearts and minds. Love You, Brenda Geer

“ Mary was a second mom to me and then became my best friend. She was always a good listener and had compassion for everyone. I will miss our conversations and laughs. She loved her kids and grandkids and was so proud to talk about them. She helped me through troubling times in my life and I will always be indebted to her. I know she suffered for a long time and is now without pain and dancing in heaven with BB King, Janis Joplin and Ed! I will miss her dearly! Love you Mary

“ Our deepest condolences to the Davenport family. While I only had the pleasure of meeting Mrs Davenport for a short time, she left a lasting impression. There are people who just radiate light and she was one of them. I often feel I knew her well through her son (my brother in law) and her legacy will long live on through him and I know her kindness and compassion be passed on to her grandchildren. We are saddened with you all but smile in the trust that she is dancing with Jesus. Sending our love and prayers to you Reuben and to the rest of the family.

“ You're missed more than words can express. You raised me to be the man I am today. Teaching me compassion and patience will always outweigh impetuous thoughts or actions. Your hugs , kisses and birthday songs will be missed. Love and miss you momma. Now go enjoy the party that heaven has prepared for you.
