I love Myma so much . She was one of the sweetest ladies I ever know. She lived in hanging limb when I grew up and I also worked with her. My sister Dean and I went to visit her last summer I believe and we talked and talked with her. About canning and sewing, and our family's . She sure loved her children and was the most unselfish person I've ever met . I can still see that beautiful smile she had. RIP Myma. Tell all my family I'll see them sometime .
