“ Peggy came into my life as a caregiver for my Aunt Tilkie in 1997, my Sister was friends with her. I loved her from the minute I met her. She became our family from that day on. My Mom loved Peggy, and years later Peggy was there to help us care for our precious Mom. A short time later my Sister became ill and again, there was our sweet Peggy. She was always ready to go the distance to visit Sue Ann. We laughed, we cried, and we loved through the hard times. After I went through some health issues, I lost contact with Peggy but, I never stopped thinking about her, my two brothers also thought she hung the moon. We loved her so much. I know one thing for sure, I know she's in Heaven walking those Streets of gold, and her family, and mine were there to meet her, and welcome her home.
