Tribute Wall

“ 2 files added to the tribute wall that I could call by for a minute just to see your face.

Wouldn't it be lovely if we could find a way, a way for me to visit you, so we could talk about our day, just like old times, the way we did before,
wouldn't it be lovely,
if I didn't have to miss you anymore.
Wouldn't it be lovely,
if we could turn the hands of time, I'd trade in all I have, I'd give up every dime,

Though unseen, I may close by,
we're never far apart,
The love we shared gives testimony to all that's in your heart.
I see the way you struggle now to hold your head up high, I'm proud of you, because I know how very hard you try.
I wish that I could hold you close and ease the pain you feel, I want so much to talk to you and someone that you'll hear.

When I see there alone, you look out with love, to remind you you still love and I want to tell you this.
Emotions in our presence and words that we give, the time we spend is precious and never very long.
Spent your precious words, opened the world of love around others in the silence as it has the better sound.

“ I remember when he moved in with me and he would come sit in the living room and we would listen to music and sing. He would sing Before the next teardrop falls by Freddy Fender 🤪 we would take turns with the verses 🤪 our mom listened to it when we were little. But we both liked it

“ When Richard and I were maybe 7 and 8 we decided we wanted to go to the store and buy some candy. Neither of us were tall enough to drive so I did the driving and Richard say in the floor board and pressed the had and brake. We decided we were going to take our dads 59 Ford Fairlane 🚗 we didn't get out of the driveway before Dad caught us . 🚗 Boy was he mad 😡

I got there first and had climbed up to the third shelf to get it Richard pulled my shirt and the whole thing fell on is 🚗 Mom was so mad she didn't let either of us have it. It was a can of chicken noodle soup 🚗🚗🚗

“ He was a good cook. He could make a delicious beef stew . The last time he cooked for before he made us fried potatoes with onions and homemade gravy. Man was it good. I will miss you Richard and I love you. Take care of mom, dad, Sandy and Steve. whenever the Lord chooses my day to come we will see each other again. ❤️

“ I have so many memories. We didn't always see I to eye but we always knew we loved one another. We could both get hot headed but the smiles and laughs happened more often. From our fishing trips when we teenagers and squirrel Hunting with our dad to him sneaking my car out one night when I was 18 and him 17. When he came back it was making a loud noise . He told me he put pipes on it 🤔 but no he had been to Austin Bottom and tore my muffler system off 🤔 I can laugh about it now but boy was I mad at him then. All he could do was smile 😊 he loved to make me mad 🤔
