“ My heart and love go out to Ricky and his son Jesse. I will always remember him as a kind mind with a big heart that a lot of us could learn from. I will always be thankful for his kindness and the time he and his son Jesse drove all the way to Nashville to pick me up from the airport, getting back from a Florida trip to see my mom. Ricky was a true man of God, having Great love for Jesse and kindness to most everyone he encountered. Never a judgmental, bigoted or toxic bone in his body. A true Christ-Like Christian. Rest in Heaven, Ricky. I wish there were more like you.
