“ I got to know Bob, by being his banker. He was a very kind man. Very thoughtful of others. I enjoyed talking with him and his sister. So sorry for his loss. Darlene Overstreet

“ Bob was my dad... I am the oldest daughter out of 4 siblings. My dad and I were very close. We would take road trips, do projects around the house, shopping for antiques and just love to laugh at the simple things in life. My dad was such a helper and always willing to give the shirt off his back. He was dedicated in his church and to his family. Dad... I still can't believe you are gone.... I wait for your call and you say "Think about it...." You were always straight forward and never held back on the way you feel about something... I know where I get that from. Dad I hope I will make you proud of my life that I have without you. You will always be with me no matter what. Thank you for being you and helping mom make the way I am today. Love you!!

I just find out because I couldn't contact him. Kim my heart is broken too. I'm so sorry and to everyone in your family. Dad and I were planning on visiting Thailand again one more time but pandemic hit. I say this he is the best dad and friend anymore should have. He will always be in my heart 💜
