Ronald and his wife, Shirley, were passionate gardeners, naturalists, and travelers. Additionally, Mr. Seiss was an avid hunter and fisherman. He could be found cheering on the Tennessee Titans on any given Sunday, no matter how terrible the team was. He loved a good meal from KFC or Dominos and ice cream shakes from Sonic. He was known to be opinionated and mischievous and could never be trusted around any form of dessert. Above all else, Mr. Seiss valued his family and took great pride in all of their accomplishments.

He was survived by his children: Cynthia Moore, Susan Lynn (Mark), Ronald S. Seiss (Debbie), and Rick Seiss (Lynn); seven grandchildren: Stephen Lynn (Tiffany Chen), Megan Norris (Matt), Ashley Seiss (Katy Reindel), Emily Seiss, Ben Seiss, Phillip Gray (Melissa) and Billy Don Gray (Hope); seven great-grandchildren: Nevaeh, Josiah, Isaiah, Mason, Eli, Parker, and Hattie Grace; and one great-great-grandchild: Elliot. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ralph E. Seiss and Mary R. Dworkowski, his brother Ralph, and his wife of almost 55 years, Shirley Seiss.

“ Dear Cindy, Susan, Ron, Rick, and Seiss Family,

I'm so sorry about the passing of your father. What Ashley wrote about your father was perfect and touching. You all are an incredible legacy to your father and mother. He was a wonderful man and everyone really loved him. There are so many fond memories of Uncle Ron. I know he is in heaven with your mother. They loved each other incredibly. Uncle Ron really cared about all of us that have a connection to our grandparents at 618 Matthews Avenue. He took an interest in each of us and offered encouragement and friendly advice. Uncle Ron always had nice things to say about everyone. My sons did not really get the chance to know him. I wish that they did. My mother, father, and sister knew your mother and father very well. We sure enjoyed visiting you all at Stiemly(sp?) Avenue and seeing you all at Grandmom and Granpop L's on countless occasions. Think about all the food we had together, and you know your father would hit it hard, probably approaching a couple hundred lunches and dinners at 618 Matthews Ave. I think Uncle Ron was the undisputed Easter Egg Fight Champion. I remember him throwing me, more like launching me, into the air while we were swimming at Greenbriar. I remember him talking about exercise and how he used to do 50 pushups or ride a bicycle over 30 mph. Exercise and sports was a fun topic often discussed. I remember the joy and love in the Stiemly Ave household and Uncle Ron was in the middle of that. That is my best memory of your father and all of you. It seems like such long time ago but those memories will last forever. I am grateful for the time we shared together. My wife, my mother, and I send our deepest sympathy and are praying for all of you and the entire Seiss family. Love, George
