“ He was a man of much wisdom. But most of all, I will miss our talks. There was no greater feeling than sitting on the front porch with Pa. Time slowed down on that porch and with a great big belly laugh and twinkle in his eye- you knew all would be right in the world. He loved his family, but his grand babies most of all. Raice has some great memories of the man whose name he carries. With Pa, you knew where you stood and his handshake was a done deal. If I raise my son to be one quarter of the man Pa was- then I have done my job as a mother. Tomorrow we say goodbye to an amazing man- but it is not forever. We will see him again some day. We love you Pa. We will miss you very much, but we will carry you with us.

“ As him being my grandpa, I remember the weekends where we always go to Hardee’s in the morning. I remember the few Sundays he went to church with us, I remember riding around the truck with him. I remember how he always whistled at us when we tried on our dresses, and he even taught me how to whistle. He never changed the radio station in the truck, and always loved to work. He loved us dearly, and we always loved him too. Now he may sit in heaven with his wife and his son. For he will be my 3rd Guardian angel❤️

“ I remember being a little girl and helping him with everything, and I use to take his tools and do what he did with them.....He was an amazing person and the best grandpa there was out there, and he may have done wrong but he was still the best....I remember when he met my boyfriend and he told my boyfriend all the memories me and him had and the ones he remembered of me and him
