“ I always looked forward to Ronnie coming into my cafe' Integrity. He always had a smile and kind words for everyone. He and his brother Johnny would joke with each other and me the entire time they sat there eating. Ronnie had a quiet sense of humor. Ronnie was always patient and supportive of the cafe'. He was very unapologetic about his convictions and views, yet tolerant of other's views as well. He told me that he loved coming in and being able to discuss politics and religion and no one getting upset if they had a different opinion. He spoke very highly of his wife. Prayers for Ronnie's wife and family. I hated to hear of your loss. -Mimi & family

Ronnie was always such a kind hearted soul. He was my cousin but we didn't see much of each other due to our busy life's these days. Ronnie and Phyllis were both wonderful people. You will always be remembered by your smile❤️
