“ Sam Sam our Pepsi man!!!! He was more than our Pepsi man at Target, he was T-695 family. I remember when he and Mollie started dating, then got married. It was a beautiful union and he was a devoted man to his wife family and friends. Miss that smile and sense of humor. Sam is forever n our hearts. I'm thankful to have had him n my life.

“ Sam was my reset partner for the last year or so at Pepsi. He was so funny and always made the day a little easier with his humor. He would talk about his kids and grandkids all the time and was looking forward to retirement and spending time with them. He loved his family and The Dallas Cowboys and of course his Vols. We would go back and forth about our teams mine being Alabama. I will miss him always he was a great man. RIP Sam RIP.

“ I met Sam about 25 years ago. He was the Pepsi guy, I was the Coke guy. Sam was so professional, polite, he had attention to detail, and was such a very cordial like-able man. I learned from him that people can all get along despite the differences in who they represent.
