“ Stephanie, you're my cousin by blood, but you were my best friend by choice. I'm so mad at you for leaving us, but that will fade. Something that never will is how much I love and miss you. We've been there for each other a million times, and I wish you would have let me be there for you this time. I'll never forget all the fun times we had together. And I'll never NOT remember you! You and Mom are up there watching over me. And since I need you both here with me still, I know I'm gonna need y'all both to keep an extra eye out for me. Until I see you again, I love you!
