

Rev. Tracy Langford

March 9, 1960 - June 5, 2026

Rev. Tracy Langford, age 66, passed away peacefully on June 5, 2026.

Born on March 9, 1960, Tracy lived a life marked by faith, service, and devotion to his family. Throughout his life, he faithfully served others as a pastor, a police officer, and a member of the United States military. His commitment to God, country, and community left a lasting impact on all who knew him.

Tracy was married to the love of his life, Margaret Langford, for 46 years. Together they built a family centered on faith, love, and perseverance. He was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather who cherished every moment spent with his family.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret Langford; his son, Caleb Langford (fiancée, Lauren Morgan); his daughter, Rebekah Turner (husband, Greg Turner); and his beloved granddaughter, Norah Jane Langford. He also leaves behind many friends, church members, fellow officers, and loved ones who were blessed by his kindness, wisdom, and unwavering faith.

Outside of his many callings, Tracy found joy in music. Whether playing, singing, or sharing songs with others, music was one of the ways he expressed his faith and connected with those around him.

Tracy's legacy is one of service, integrity, compassion, and faith. He spent his life helping others, leading by example, and pointing people toward hope. While he will be deeply missed, his family finds comfort in knowing that he is now at peace and reunited with his Heavenly Father.

"Well done, good and faithful servant." – Matthew 25:23

His wishes of cremation are being honored with Celebration of Life Services to be announced at a later date.
