“ Ty and I worked together at a resort in Pensacola. Ty was an integral part of our team. He was a great colleague, but even more, he was a great human being.

Ty was quick witted and caring, professional and jocular, loquacious and reserved, and he truly wanted the best for everyone.

He was a respected supervisor and teammate!

As we struggle to understand how such a remarkable young man can no longer be with us, I wanted to share the playful side of Ty that we all came to know and love.

After working on a problem for several days, we finally resolved the issue and I asked Ty to "strike a pose" in celebration, Ty did not disappoint!

I've kept this photo for some time, I sure wish he and I could look back on it and laugh, but I'm sure that's just what he's doing.

Our deepest condolences for his family and friends!

*Sincerely,
The Portofino CP team*

“I had the privilege of being Ty's teacher when he was in elementary school. He was such a kind, polite boy. He loved to draw and was very talented. One morning he came in and presented me with a drawing he had done of a book cover to a book we had enjoyed in school. The detail and beauty of it was incredible. I could see that Ty was very talented, gifted. He also did a great job with a performance in a school program. He and another boy did "Who's On First?" It was wonderful and Ty seemed to really enjoy it.

My husband and I caught up with Ty again over dinner several years ago and enjoyed our time together that evening. Knowing he is gone is so sad. We send our sympathy and love to all the family.

“ *Where can I start? Our family has accumulated numerous cherished memories and stories about Ty. I have one particular recollection that I hold dear. The day after your wedding, I received a notification that I had been added as a family member on Facebook, designated as "Aunt." This gesture touched my heart in a profound way, underscoring the significance and depth of our family bonds. Ty was already part of this family before their special day. Ty was so loved.
