“ I enjoyed talking to her we use to work together and she trained me when I first moved to Tennessee. she always made me laugh and talk about how we was related and even if I wasn't married into the family anymore we were still sisters in Christ. We attended several church services together. How she loved her family and how hard she prayed for her family to be saved .She will be missed she was a sweet sweet lady I really loved and so glad for having known her and for the memories we have shared. Go rest in the arms of Jesus Sister Velma you're finally home.
