“ Uncle Willis had such a kind loving heart. Anyone who spoke to him or knew him, found out just how much he loved God in just a few minutes. He would ask you where you go to church and let you know right quick that God was so good to him. Uncle Willis and Aunt Reba will be greatly missed by all who knew them. I know it will be hard for their family, but trusting and keeping the faith in knowing one day soon they will see their sweet parents again up in Heaven, if they keep their hearts pure and ready to go when God calls their name, will help them make it through the tough days ahead. My love to you all my dear cousins. Treva.
